

what to expect from your retreat

Your retreat will have a beautifully decorated lounge area with wood burning stove, comfy seating area and large TV making it the perfect space for relaxation. The lounge leads round to a dining table which comfortably seats 4 in front of patio doors showcasing the stunning views from your retreat.

The stylish kitchen is ideal for making dinner or snacks for your group. The kitchen is equipped with a hob, combination oven, dishwasher, fridge, freezer, kettle, toaster, pots, pans, trays, Pyrex dishes, cutlery, a range of utensils, crockery, glasses and a Nespresso coffee machine.

Furthermore, each retreat is provided with tea-towels, dishwasher tablets, washing up liquid, tea bags, coffee and sugar, Nespresso pods, fresh milk, salt / pepper mills and kitchen roll.

In the modern bathroom you will find a large bath and a separate shower with Arran Sense of Scotland toiletries along with towels and toilet rolls. There are separate towels for use with the outdoor bath as well as dressing gowns.

The master bedroom has a sumptuous super king bed as well as an ensuite shower room. There is also a twin room adjacent to the main bathroom..

The private walled patio to the front of the retreat has a lovely seating area as well as a fire pit and luxurious wood fired outdoor bath. The ultimate space to enjoy a warm summers night as well as an awesome spot to get cosy in front of the fire pit and appreciate the peace of the glen on an autumns evening.

Throughout the retreat you will find thermostatically controlled heating, music delivered by Amazon Echo and free wifi.

In the cupboard you'll find an umbrella, hairdrier, iron and board.

We provide all the matches, wood and kindling you'll need. For more wood please see the log store located just before L I. For more matches, twizzlers or kindling, please contact reception by dialling "0" from the phone in your retreat.
